

I can't believe the over-the-air broadcasters are afraid of "local weather and traffic". This is not an issue that the FCC should have to deal with. Please reject the National Association of Broadcasters petition against satellite radio. Let them provide better programming instead. Maybe they hadn't thought of that. Respectfully, Sky Tribell